‘Tis The Season— For Giving and For Gratitude

Thanksgiving is past and the Christmas Season is upon us. While most of us think of this as a time for giving, the Community Foundation Board and Staff consider this a time for Gratitude.

Gratitude for the opportunity to assist Randolph County by providing grants and support to county organizations for the services they provide.

Gratitude to the many organizations in our County, without which many needs would not be met.

Gratitude to the many donors who give through the Foundation. At this time of year we want to recognize the generosity of individuals, organizations and corporations. Thank you so much for your investment in Randolph County. We are here to serve you and help you achieve your charitable goals. Please let us know if there is anything else we can do for you.

Farewell Open House December 15, 2010, 3-5 pm

Judy Mullin, Administrative Coordinator will be retiring on December 15 after five years of dedicated service to the Community Foundation of Randolph County. She has greeted people as they come into the office and is the cheerful voice on the phone. In addition, she has worked with County students through the scholarship program and has followed their progress as they go through school. She has also been the driving force behind the Dictionary Day program. If you were to ask her, she would tell you the best part of her job is working with students.

Judy plans to spend more time with her grandchildren and do some traveling with her husband Bill. The first trip they will be taking is to Norfolk, Virginia to watch her son Greg's ship arrive as he returns from deployment.

Please join us on December 15 as we wish Judy the best as she enters a new phase of her life.

The Holiday Spirit is contagious

The holiday spirit is all around us. All we have to do is spread a little to get a lot back. A Japanese proverb reminds us, "One kind word can warm three winter months." We can embrace the holiday spirit by embracing those around us.

Whether you celebrate Christmas, Hanukkah, Kwanza or any other holiday, we wish you the best for the holiday season and that you find joy that comes from giving, love that comes from sharing, and peace that comes from slowing down and embracing the holiday spirit.
