Letter From Executive Director

As we continue through the global health crisis, the Community Foundation of Randolph County, like many others, is adjusting to the idea that the world as we have known it has forever changed. We are finding new ways to keep our work moving forward, stay connected, and protect the people and causes we care about. We have seen the power of our community showcased like never before, and we invite you to join us.

The Community Foundation has always been a place to connect and learn from each other. As we struggle to help our grantees survive, we are inspired by the willingness of our peers to step up for each other, share best practices, find opportunities to streamline, connect, and really leverage the uniqueness of being a Community Foundation to address needs in our community. In this spirit, the Foundation has committed to being a funder during this challenging time by establishing the Randolph County COVID-19 Relief Fund.

As we wake up each day to new uncertainty about our health, the economy, and our loved ones, we face these challenges knowing that we are experiencing this crisis together. Randolph County is a community of “helpers,” and understanding these connections and great ideas are only a click or call away has been grounding for each of us.

The only constant in this world is change, and knowing that the Community Foundation of Randolph County is thriving allows us to face that change with confidence. Please join us in supporting the essential relief efforts happening today in Randolph County. In these times, we wish you good health and happiness.

The RESULTS of PHILANTHROPY
are always BEYOND CALCULATION.
- Miriam Beard

Philanthropy is the love of humanity, driven by a deep attachment to the world and our duty to the people in it. We want to connect with and invest in people, the hearts behind the work, because the heart is where real change can begin. We ask you to join us for many more years of connecting and investing with others and doing good in Randolph County.

Faces at the Foundation Spotlight

Cathy Stephen Miller

What initially drew you to the Community Foundation?

"I was initially involved in a small way with the Community Foundation when it first began—we were working on a Lilly Endowment CAPE Grant for the County, and I was the grant writer. I learned at that time what the Foundation did for our community. When my father passed away in 2005, he requested donations to a scholarship for students who had attended Willard Elementary when he volunteered there, which we set up at CFRC. When my husband, Kellie, became ill with cancer, and we knew he was not going to make it, we again turned to the Community Foundation to set up the Stephen Family Fund for Scholarships. When his friends wanted to do a golf outing in his memory for scholarships for athletes at all five Randolph County Schools, again the Community Foundation was the vehicle we chose. I am proud to say both the Stephen Family Fund and the Kellie Stephen Memorial Fund are both now endowed funds."

What committees have you been involved with, and why did you gravitate toward them?

"I have served on various committees during my tenure with the Foundation Board. I started out on the Grants committee to learn how our foundation could help other non-profits in our community. I worked on the Asset Development committee where we developed the Randolph County Heroes Fund to give our community opportunities to honor people or groups either living or deceased. I have served on the local scholarship committee and served as a fill-in judge a couple of times for the Lilly Scholarship. Currently, I am chair of the Nominating Committee, which recruits new board members and nominates a slate of officers each year for consideration by the Board. Because of my history with grant writing, I volunteered to be on the Lilly GIFT VII committee, as well. This work has allowed us to join together with Randolph County United and Ball State University in Cultivating Community. My favorite, and the work I am most proud of in the Foundation, is the Promise Indiana of Randolph County. Five years ago, we wrote a grant and raised enough money to fund College Choice 529 accounts for every 3rd grade student in Randolph County with a $25 donation. I hope to continue with Promise even after I leave the Board in 2022."

Why do you continuously choose to donate your time?

"I retired from Randolph Eastern School Corporation in 2010 and then started my own educational consulting business, which I ran until January of 2020. Education is my passion, and the Community Foundation has given me an opportunity to continue with that passion without holding down a full or part-time job. I volunteer for other things besides the Foundation, but this is certainly my largest time commitment... My parents raised me to always give back, and my in-laws, Gerald and Patsy Stephen, taught me to love Randolph County and showed me by example how rewarding community involvement and volunteerism can be. I hope I can follow in their shoes, as well my father's, who volunteered at Willard until after his 90th birthday! I have received so much from this community, and I want to give back in any way I can."

Is there anything else you would like to share about yourself or your experience?

"I feel so blessed that my late husband, Kellie Stephen, drug this Muncie girl to Randolph County! I spent all of my educational career at three Randolph County Schools - Union, Randolph Central, and Randolph Eastern. Kellie also worked at Monroe Central. Our children, Shannon Hartley, Stephen Hartley, and Carrie Baldwin, all received wonderful educations in Randolph County and are quite successful in part due to that. After Kellie's death, I was astounded by the generosity of this community with their contributions to the funds honoring him and the support and outpouring of love our family received. I was also blessed nine years after Kellie's death to find a man who had lost his wife too early to cancer. Dr. Tom Miller, also a retired superintendent and educational consultant, has joined me here in Randolph County. We also have a home in Fishers. We both assumed we would have homes somewhere warm in the winters, but family is so important to us that the two homes in Indiana, close to some of our six children and 16 grandchildren, better fit the bill!"

Nominate your hero today!

The News-Gazette and the Community Foundation of Randolph County continue their celebration of local heroes who have impacted the community or exceeded expectations to serve others. This effort is the result of a Community Foundation program that helps recognize such people, while also raising money to help others.

“We thought a really neat thing would be to create a list of Randolph County Heroes,” said Community Foundation board member Cathy Stephen-Miller of the ongoing program which started in 2015. “For $1,000, anyone can nominate a person (living or deceased), business, or community organization for the designation of a Randolph County Hero. The money goes into our Randolph County Hero Unrestricted Fund, which the board uses to do great things in Randolph County for years to come. It all has to do with making Randolph County a great place to live.”

Those designated as Randolph County Heroes will have their names on a plaque at the Foundation office and will be featured in the News-Gazette.

The Randolph County Heroes Fund is a wonderful way to remember someone who has passed and a great way to honor those currently working to make Randolph County a better place to live.

The following organizations were awarded grants during 2020 for the 2021 fiscal year.

In 1997, the Indiana Arts Commission (IAC) and 12 community-based organizations jointly established the Indiana Regional Arts Partnerships (RAP), a collaborative project to enhance support for arts and cultural activities statewide, especially in underserved areas. The RAPs enhance the delivery of services, move the decision-making about IAC funds closer to you, and are the cornerstone of the IAC's structure.

As the Region 5 Regional Arts Partner, the Community Foundation of Randolph County provides resources and information for arts in Blackford, Delaware, Fayette, Grant, Henry, Jay, Madison, Randolph, Rush, Union, and Wayne counties. Quote from Derick

"The young people of Randolph County have countless goals and ambition. With the right support and motivation, they can achieve any number of great things. Thanks to scholarships like the Lilly Endowment program, we are ensuring the success of Indiana's brightest and most talented students. When I was selected as the 2020 Lilly Recipient, more opportunities became available to me than ever before. Without the worry of tuition costs, I was able to explore private universities that were once unthinkable. I can now pursue my higher education and consider additional resources like study abroad and campus research projects. Becoming a Lilly Scholar has also connected me with a network of like-minded individuals and corporate entities. Working with other Lilly Scholars from across the state has created many friendships and lifelong bonds. I look forward to seeing what we can accomplish together for our great state. I would not be where I am today without this incredible honor. I'm excited to see how this program continues to impact the next generation of young Hoosiers. Thank you to the Lilly Endowment Program and the Community Foundation of Randolph County for supporting past, present, and future recipients."

Congratulations!

Fund News

Women's Fund

The pandemic may have forced changes, but the Women's Fund Committee pushed forward with a fundraising auction to help bring needed resources to the fund. In spite of rescheduling the brunch event the committee was able to proceed with the many donations that were made in anticipation to the event in April. An on-line auction hosted by BidTarter.com was held over the course of 10 days. A Facebook live event was also held with co-chairpersons Stephanie Ward and Shelly Symmes explaining the Women's Fund history and mission as well as announcing the grant recipients and the art contest awards. First prize went to JoAnna Price for her piece "Ebbing Tide" (shown left). Other honorees were Carol Sexton, MaryEllen Bertram, Patrick Kluesner, and Carol Strockwasson.

The Foundation extends its gratitude to the many auction item donors, Women's Fund members, and brunch & auction sponsors, specifically Old National Bank, for their continued support of this event and the Fund's year-round endeavors.

Our New Funds

Elizabeth & Gerald Greenawalt Scholarship Fund

The Greenawalt's established a scholarship fund in their name with the intention of supporting the further education of a WCHS student in future years. Additional criteria for this scholarship will include being in the top 1/3 of the student's class, demonstrating financial need, being enrolled full-time in an accredited 2- or 4-year institution, and two letters of recommendation.

Randolph County COVID-19 Response Fund

In a proactive move, the CFRC Board of Directors approved the Randolph County COVID-19 Response Fund with the intention of providing community support to the organization and businesses that suffer as a result of the pandemic.

Randolph County Fund for Education

The Community Foundation of Randolph County, Inc. has established the Randolph County Fund for Education to help address the needs of educators and education throughout the county, knowing educational systems have struggled with meeting the needs of students during the pandemic.

The Journey Home Fund to End Veteran Homelessness

In February, the Board approved a new endowment fund, the "Journey Home Fund to End Veteran Homelessness." This fund's purpose is to provide support and further prevent, respond and react to the issues that homeless veterans may face. These contributions are intended to coincide with the efforts of the current Randolph County Veterans Shelter, The Journey Home.

Excellence. Accountability. Impact.™

represents a community foundation's commitment to going above and beyond federal and state requirements to demonstrate accountability and excellence to communities, policymakers, and the public. As community foundations face regulation at the state and the federal level, the accreditation program provides an additional layer of rigorous, sector-driven and enforced accountability.

The Accreditation Seal is only awarded to those community foundations that continue to meet comprehensive standards. Those receiving the Accreditation Seal have demonstrated their commitment to the success and well-being of every cause and person they support, and are willing and able to stand by every grant they have made. Dollars set aside for charity are limited. The Accreditation Seal signals to donors and to their professional advisers that a community foundation is a sound place to give and make a difference. 92 percent of the nation's largest community foundations participate in the National Standards Program. All community foundations receiving accreditation must meet 26 National Standards. Updated in 2014, these standards show that the Community Foundation of Randolph County, Inc. strives to achieve operational excellence.
